FROM THE CHAIR

Congratulations to our newly elected members of the Board of Governors. We have a great balance of callers from all phases of our activity. New people bring new ideas and we're excited about some of the refreshing changes that have occurred. However, the best ideas don’t always originate in the Board room, so don’t hesitate to contact any of your Board members or the Home Office, with your input.

If you enjoyed the CDP Journal that came with the last issue of DIRECTION, don’t forget to let the Home Office know, in writing, that you want to continue receiving it. That was the only issue that was to go out with everyone’s copy of DIRECTION. Future issues will only be mailed to those who request it. Even if you are not presently calling or teaching the Community Dance Program, this Journal has timeless information. The material can also be used for one night stands or as resource material for future use. If you have CDP material in your files, please sent it to CAL CAMPBELL, 343 Turf Lane, Castle Rock, Colorado 80104. By sharing material, you’re helping to improve the calling programs of your colleagues, which helps to being more dancers to our activity. As our CDP, Basic and Mainstream programs begin to build, so will our other programs. Building our foundation programs today will help our activity flourish in future years.

The Executive Committee has established a Public Relations Committee. Chairman, Ken Ritucci and Vice-Chairman, Jim Wheeler, have developed a plan of action and have already written articles about CALLERLAB and have responded to articles in square dance publications. With special assistance from Jack Berg, this intentionally small committee has tremendous potential. If you have articles on CALLERLAB, calling or square dancing, in your fires, we’d appreciate it if you would share copies with the PR Committee, through the Home Office. This file can serve as a resource for any member needing information when publicly speaking or writing articles. Members with special skills in writing, public relations or graphic design, are encouraged to contact the Home Office and become a part of this new committee.

We have received several comments from callers and dance leaders, as well as articles in square dance publications, that discuss a particular call or issue as being "illegal, according to CALLERLAB". Another comment that seems to be prevalent in these discussions is that "CALLERLAB says you can't do that". Let me set the record straight.

CALLERLAB sets guidelines. CALLERLAB suggests usages of calls. CALLERLAB recommends timing and styling of calls. CALLERLAB recognizes regional differences. CALLERLAB strongly supports caller individuality. CALLERLAB advocates smooth, comfortable and considerate dancing, with a big emphasis on fun, fellowship and letting the dancer win. CALLERLAB members have a wide variety of opinions and our decisions, over the past twenty years, have been made by majority vote. CALLERLAB members have compromised and worked hard to develop a standardized dance form. CALLERLAB cannot and does not desire to act as a "traffic cop" for all of its members, or for the square dance activity. CALLERLAB strongly supports good caller judgement. CALLERLAB does not have a list of actions that are "illegal". CALLERLAB does not dictate anything. So, the next time you hear anyone say, "CALLERLAB says that's illegal", please set the record straight!

Keep 'Em Smiling,

Mike Seastrom, Chairman of the Board

"IMPROVING THE DANCE EXPERIENCE"

The theme for the 20th CALLERLAB convention, to be held in Louisville April 5-7, 1993, is "Improving the Dance Experience".

The dramatic growth of the organization and its attendant economies of scale, plus the continuing improvements in the cost accounting system, plus the ability to negotiate a better package have all combined to make possible a reduction in the '93 convention package cost.

If everyone that responded positively to our question on the dues renewal notice attends this convention, it will be the largest convention ever -- with over 1,200 attendees. We urge you to make your reservations early as meeting space is limited and we may have to limit the number of attendees.

Complete information is included with this issue of DIRECTION.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

Enclosed with this issue of DIRECTION are the financial reports of CALLERLAB and the CALLERLAB Foundation for the Preservation and Promotion of Square Dancing for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1992.

The Executive Committee has authorized a change in the fiscal year from May 31st to November 30th. This change will allow a better alignment of our major income, which occurs between February 1st and April 1st, and our major expenditures, which occur after May 1st. As a result, the next financial report will reflect a truer picture of income versus expenses for the year.

Any questions should be directed to the Home Office.

EQUIPMENT INSURANCE NOW AVAILABLE

Your Board of Governors is pleased to announce that the long-awaited equipment insurance package for US members is now available. Details are included with this issue of DIRECTION.

Please understand that CALLERLAB receives no income whatever from this offering. We only provide the required sponsorship that allows the insurance company to offer group rates to our members. Once you have enrolled in the program, all future correspondence will be between you and the insurance company.

Each year, at renewal time, we will provide the insurance company with a list of our current membership. You must maintain your membership in CALLERLAB to be eligible for the insurance.

We are pleased to be able to offer such an attractive rate. We hope many of you will take advantage of this newest CALLERLAB benefit.

PLUS COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

This article marks a return of the Plus Committee Commentary to DIRECTION after a short absence. The reason for the absence is that 1992 has been a bit of a hectic year for Kathy and myself. In February, we moved from Pennsylvania to the San Francisco Bay Area. After twelve years in Pennsylvania, with our only move being "across town", working our way through all of the details of a relocation was a real adventure. Anyway, we are pretty well settled again and enjoying life in California.

The coming year is a significant one for both the Mainstream and Plus Programs. Under the CALLERLAB Program Policy adopted at the Las Vegas Convention in April, 1991, both programs will be considered for possible revision in the summer of 1993. As stated in the April 1992 DIRECTION, "the Board of Governors has set a long-range goal for the organization of working to equalize the teaching time for each of the Programs". Calls will be considered from every program, through A2, for addition or deletion, in our effort to work toward program sizes that will allow the teaching of a program in a single class season. The Mainstream Program will be considered for revision first, followed by the Plus Program. It will be the responsibility of the Plus Committee to propose what calls will be added to or deleted from the Plus Program. To that end, I will be mailing background information and a request for input to all Plus Committee Members. It is not too soon to start thinking now about what calls you would like to consider during this updating process.

I urge all CALLERLAB members who are actively calling the Plus Program, but who are not members of the Plus Committee, to join the Plus Committee now, so that you can participate in the review process. All you need to do to join is to write to me and let me know that you are interested. My current address is:

Let’s work together to insure that the Plus Program continues to be a quality program that dancers will enjoy for years to come.

PLUS EMPHASIS CALL – REMAKE THE THAR

Remake The Thar has been selected as the Plus emphasis call for a 4-month period beginning November 1, 1992. The CALLERLAB definition for Remake the Thar is:

REMAKE THE THAR: Starting formation – Thar Star or Wrong Way Thar. TIMING – 10. The handholds forming the center star are released as each center dancer and the adjacent outside dancer Arm Turn one-quarter (90°) to form a momentary Alamo ring. In a continuously flowing movement, everyone releases holds with the dancer they just turned, and with the other hand, turn the next adjacent dancer one-half (180°) to form another momentary Alamo ring. Without stopping, they release holds at the completion of the half turn and, with the other arm, turn the next dancer three-quarters (270°) to form another Thar Star or Wrong-Way Thar.

STYLING: Forearm turns are used for the turning action. As in all forearm turns, it is important that the holds are firm, without being rough, and that they are released easily. Ladies use skirt work when they are the outside dancers in the Thar Star. All styling tips as described in the basic Allemande Thar are applicable.

The CALLERLAB STANDARD PLUS APPLICATIONS book lists the standard arrangement as ‘Same sex in center’.

We hope that you will give some thought to different ways to use the call at the Plus Program. Some suggestions for using Remake The Thar as an emphasis call are: 1) from Wrong-Way Thars, 2) from mixed sex Thar Stars. i.e. Walk Around the Left Hand Lady, Turn Partner Left to an Allemand Thar, just the Heads (Sides) Trade, Remake The Thar, etc. To get out of mixed sex Thars, have the boys (or girls if appropriate) Run and tell the dancers to ‘move up to a line of four’. 3) from parallel ocean waves, All 8 Circulate Once and One-half to an Allemande Thar. Have fun experimenting, but remember to keep the choreography danceable.

YOUR COMMENTS, PLEASE

At the 1991 Convention, the membership of CALLERLAB voted to endorse the Diamond Program, developed by Jack Murtha, as the program recommend for use in public and private school systems. Since that time, we have passed through one school year and are now approaching the start of a second year. In order to evaluate the ways the Program has been implemented, the Education Committee would like to enlist your aid in gathering some information.

We would like to hear from any member of CALLERLAB who has used the Diamond Program in their local schools. Please include information on your success in persuading the local schools to allow the program or comments on their reasons for refusal. If you have not been able to move the program into schools, but know of callers or dancers who have, please ask them to send me their comments on the program and how they feel they were able to gain their access. If they would rather not respond, ask for their permission to send the information to the Education Committee.

The public schools remain as one of our most available sources of participants and yet it is virtually untouched. Your help in responding could enable the Education Committee to begin work on a method to change that. Please send your responses, as quickly as possible, to Ralph Kornegay, Chairman Education Committee, 138 Mohican Trail, Wilmington, NC 28409.

YOUR INPUT PLEASE

In a recent Tech-Notes there was a proposed definition of the All-Eight Concept. The definitions sub-committee, at Bill Davis’s request, is working on a definition of the All-Eight Concept. However, the proposed definition which appeared in Tech-Notes may not be what we adopt. The proposed definition makes some changes to the way the call is currently danced, which may not get approved. If you have any comments on either the current definition of the All Four Couples Concept or the proposed definition of the All Eight Concept or how you know which to use when, please send them to Clark Baker, Chairman of the Definitions Sub-Committee.

THE CALLER AND CALLERLAB
by Bob Van Antwerp

This article is designed to offset some of the criticism leveled against CALLERLAB. It may be that we, as callers, are expecting too much of the dancers and the dancers are blaming the results on the CALLERLAB programs. In the 40’s, 50’s and 60’s, prior to CALLERLAB, when on a traveling circuit it was very difficult for a caller to present a program of calling in Boston one night and proceed to Nashville for the next dance only to find difficulty in programming his calls. The dance figures in one area might be quite different from those danced in another area. Prior to CALLERLAB, it was hard for some callers to realize that a call in one state would have a different meaning and execution in another. A Dosado in one state meant a Do Paso in another. Different hand claps on some figures was normal. Styling was also not the same for some basics, such as Dosado (I notice some still are), ocean waves, promenades, etc. All of which added to many styles and practices including variations in tempos. Yes, CALLERLAB at least standardized and stabilized this uncomfortable situation for all callers and dancers alike.

The level or program identification may not be perfect as a solution for all callers to follow, and some do not, but without a doubt it has assisted in creating uniform square dance programming, when used properly, throughout the world.

We, as callers, have nobody to blame but ourselves when we turn our calling into a competitive avocation, using the program identification as the framework to compete. Instead, we would be wise to select a CALLERLAB program that appears to be needed in our particular area or situation; a program that the caller feels most comfortable with, whether it be Community Dance, Basic, Mainstream, Plus, Advanced, Challenge or a combination, and dismiss the competitive portrayal we may be utilizing.

As callers, if we are offering our dancers the variety and smooth, interesting dance choreography within the program we are calling, it is very probable we will find dancer satisfaction. It is not always just dance choreography that will spell success for the caller. Many ingredients must be incorporated in the dance activity with your club and its members, like your availability to openly discuss dance problems, participate fully in club activities and showing a serious desire to please. Your leadership, by showing an interest in them beyond that of just square dancing, is an ever--so important ingredient.

CALLERLAB has established every possible dance program to assist callers in becoming successful in their calling and teaching, from one night stands to challenge, but we have to find our own personal and satisfying niche. We, as callers, must find our niche in this calling avocation and do our best until we find we are actually ready and well prepared to enter the next program. We must determine who will be the beneficiaries of raising the dance level to another program, the caller or the dancers. Who actually determines the need and what are the prerequisites for the proposed change.

When I started calling in 1947, six to ten weeks of lessons were adequate for a successful evening of dancing. We have progressed quite well, for which I am pleased. But, I decided to find my niche by calling in the Mainstream and Plus programs which I find successful for me, and where I prefer to remain.

Personally, I would not want to return to the old methods of trial and hope programming, where dancers, and sometimes callers alike, were left in a state of confusion. Most callers today know what calls are defined for the program they are expected to call. (Notice I did not say all callers) They will not be expected to alter their calling during the dance because of so many different movements being experimented with or because of local variations.

I am certainly not against proper and gradual progression in our calling if the demand is warranted and preferred by the majority of the dancers. My opposition is to the caller imposing this new element on the dancers to satisfy his supposedly reaching a higher echelon in his calling avocation. This could be one of the reasons for non-retention of our dancers on a more permanent basis.

Once again, this is not written as being in complete agreement that all CALLERLAB programs are perfect, but I do follow them until I find satisfactory and better reasons to say they are the main reasons for dancer decline or losses. I do know from past involvement that many hours, weeks, months and years of voluntary time and intense study were given by scores of successful callers to create the CALLERLAB established and caller approved programs for the benefit of callers and dancers alike. It is expected that many articles will continue to be written, pro and con, on the CALLERLAB programs, but we as callers must learn to judge with our best capabilities just what is best for the overall dance program in our area and not place all the blame on CALLERLAB.

We, as callers, have to accept our own shortcomings and utilize our most qualified talents where it will benefit ourselves and dancers and not blame other aspects for our individual calling failures. When callers decide, on their own, to consistently stray from the standardized lists and go beyond the advertised level of the dance, the blame usually falls on the CALLERLAB programs by the dancers. CALLERLAB cannot monitor or enforce restricted controls on caller-members to adhere to policies accepted and approved by the majority of members, unless it falls within the realm of blatant disregard of the established Code of Ethics, for which actions can be taken. Therefore, CALLERLAB has to withstand and shoulder the criticism leveled at their programs and continue to strive for improved lists. The hope is always present that CALLERLAB members will realize how professional the organization has tried to make it for their members in program identification for square dancing internationally.

WHY JOHNNY CAN'T DANCE
by Ken Ritucci

Anyone who is involved with our activity, whether it be callers, cuers or dancers, has gone through our "educational system"; i.e., beginner lessons. Have you ever stopped to think what type of system we have? Is it flawless? I don't think so.

If we continue to turn out poor dancers, then eventually we will have a crisis on our hands. Yet, a crisis situation has no power in itself. It merely forces people to focus on a single thing - to concentrate all of their strengths and energies on a single target. In that sense, a crisis literally compels you to do the thing you should have been doing all along.

Each year, we spend a great deal of money and effort recruiting people for beginner classes. This is all well and good. However, if we turn out poor and dissatisfied dancers from our "school system", we are forcing a crisis situation. We will then have to focus all of our energies to correcting the situation that we have created.

What is that situation? It is a situation that we allow to happen year in and year out because we tend not to look long range. Some callers, cuers and dance leaders actually think that the few dancers that come back in September after graduating are actually going to stay in square dancing for the rest of their lives. Of course, some do, but others either move up through the level system and then quit, or simply drop out because they cannot keep up.

It is like we are leading them in one door and leading them out the other end. We need to give them a reason to "stay in the room and close the door themselves". What are we trying to achieve with our present educational system? How can we ALL WORK TOGETHER to correct the situation before we have a "crisis" on our hands?

Great achievement is the result of great thoughts. Poverty is the result of poor thoughts. The choice is ours. We are not victims, we are creators. When we begin to spend more time thinking about what our end result will be with the current educational system and not look for immediate gratification, it is then that we will have begun the process of "long term success".

Did you notice all the Plus Workshops that were being offered this summer? Clubs and callers alike were jumping on the bandwagon, offering their services or air conditioned halls for people to dance. There is nothing wrong with this concept. However, what kind of message are we sending? It's almost as if we are saying, "Okay now, come to my workshop and learn Plus dancing from me/us. We realize that you may have been exposed to some of these calls during beginners classes, but you will have to know them quite well for the new fall season".

Whatever happened to Mainstream Summer Dances? Whatever happened to "okay now, come to my summer series of interesting, yet relaxing Mainstream dances to reinforce everything you learned in beginners classes". You have heard so often that "Mainstream is boring". Mainstream is boring because callers are boring. Mainstream is boring because callers are bored with calling the level. Because callers are lazy and don't want to do the work necessary to make it fun and interesting for the dancers. Mainstream is boring because dancers/clubs push their graduates to the next level because "Plus is where it's at". Mainstream is boring because dancers get bored with themselves and have to reach for the next level of excitement. But they will eventually get bored with that and move up again. Do you see my point? I could continue, but many of us have looked at this menu before.

The future of this activity is up to us. We should stop looking back and begin to look ahead. What lies before us? Many people think that the clubs will be nonexistent someday. Do you agree? Are we running out of time? Remember, scraps of time add up quickly. Just ten minutes per day is equal to one workweek per year! How much more time will we take before we cannot catch up? Why am I writing about such a dark and dismal subject? Can it be the truth? Can it be a slight hint of the truth? What do we need for a more successful rate of retaining dancers? Do we need to change the process? Remember, success is a process, not something you achieve all at once.

So, analyze your current situation. Ask yourself if the educational system that we all belong to is going to continue to succeed at its current makeup. What part will you do to educate our new dancers?

Best wishes for large and prosperous beginner classes this year!

AN EVOLUTIONARY MATTER
by Stan Burdick

Have you been calling for at least ten years? Do you travel to a number of different clubs? If so, have you noticed anything different out there on the dance floor?

I submit that the average floor of dancers these days is ten years older than they were ten years ago! Think about it. That's quite a change. Instead of the "average" being about the same age, the "average" is following the chronological passage of time. Does this mean, if the trend continues, those dancers out there (what's left of them), will be ten years older yet, ten years from now?

It's interesting. Ten years ago they were 40 to 50, on the average - all clubs, all areas considered. Today I see 50 - 60 as the average age in front of me. Imagine. One year older per year of time passing. It's like a "family" - a million wide - growing up together. But it's a bit scary, too, when you remember that everyone slows down as they age, they are less active, and they die.

What does it mean, right now, for all of us callers? For one thing, we ought to slow down the music tempo just a bit. (maybe one little RPM - from 45 to 44) to give them more "think time" and less "running time". Maybe we ought to run shorter tips. You've already seen the trend to shorter dances - 2½ hours instead of 3. This should tell us what's happening.

Let's examine the reasons for this transition.

1. New "blood" (young blood?) doesn't commit itself to today's long term, 3-season class involvement. Fast food. Fast action. Short interest span. Time is money. That's how they think.

2. Meanwhile, the "old guard", the veteran dancers, just can't seem to bring in new recruits lately, or don't want to. Some are caught up in the "stretch level syndrome".

3. The "name" callers are increasingly covering the warm climate resort scene where dollars and security seem to reside, which automatically caters to the older generation.

Finally, can we do anything to change the trend? Not a lot. Perhaps social conditions will cause a reversal (the pendulum swing theory). We can push the Community Dance Program of CALLERLAB for a short range dance pitch. We can urge CALLERLAB members to consider a shorter Mainstream list, offering less commitment. Do we need a "No Obligation Dance Program"? Watch news of Sweden's and Denmark's fast growth with mostly young adherents. There may be a few clues to be found there.

AND FINALLY ...

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS OF MAY 31, 1992

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of CALLERLAB, INC. is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Organization

The Association, a non-profit organization, promotes the art of square dance calling among all nations of the world.

For both tax purposes and financial reporting, the Association uses the cash basis of accounting. Under the cash basis of accounting, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are reported at cost. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and renewals and improvements are capitalized. The Association provides for depreciation using the straight-line method and the modified accelerated cost recovery system over estimated useful lives of 5 to 7 years. Depreciation computed using the modified accelerated cost recovery system does not differ materially from methods of depreciation which are acceptable for cash basis reporting.

Taxes

CALLERLAB FOUNDATION
FOR THE PRESERVATION & PROMOTION OF SQUARE DANCING, INC.
829 3RD AVE SE SUITE 213
ROCHESTER, MN 55906

We have reviewed the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances - cash basis of CALLERLAB FOUNDATION FOR THE PRESERVATION & PROMOTION OF SQUARE DANCING, INC. as of May 31, 1992 and the related statements of revenues and expenses, changes in fund balances, and statement of cash flows - cash basis for the year then ended in accordance with standards established by the American Institute Of Certified Public Accountants. All information included in these financial statements is the representation of the management of CALLERLAB FOUNDATION FOR THE PRESERVATION & PROMOTION OF SQUARE DANCING, INC.

A review consists principally of inquiries of company personnel and analytical procedures applied to financial data. It is substantially less in scope than an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based upon our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with the cash basis of accounting, as described in Note 1.

Respectfully submitted,

FOR THE PRESERVATION & PROMOTION OF SQUARE DANCING, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS OF MAY 31, 1992

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of CALLERLAB FOUNDATION FOR THE PRESERVATION & PROMOTION OF SQUARE DANCING, INC. is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Organization

The Foundation, a non-profit organization, promotes the art of square dancing through education and promotion.

For both tax purposes and financial reporting, the Foundation uses the cash basis of accounting. Under the cash basis of accounting, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are reported at cost. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and renewals and improvements are capitalized. The Foundation provides for depreciation using the straight-line method and the modified accelerated cost recovery system over estimated useful lives of 5 to 7 years. Depreciation computed using the modified accelerated cost recovery system does not differ materially from methods of depreciation which are acceptable for cash basis reporting.

Taxes

The Foundation qualifies as a tax exempt organization under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore, is not subject to federal and/or state income taxes.

NOTE 2 - DONATIONS FROM CALLERLAB ASSOCIATION

These donations were funds transferred from CALLERLAB ASSOCIATION. The funds had been received by CALLERLAB ASSOCIATION but were earmarked for the CALLERLAB FOUNDATION and were transferred to the CALLERLAB FOUNDATION upon its formation and approval by the IRS of its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3).

The Preface of the CALLERLAB Advanced Definitions contains important information regarding such rules as Facing Couples Rule; Ocean Wave Rule; Right Shoulder Rule; All Four Couples vs. All Eight; Split vs. Box; How dancers are named; Starting Formations; Glossary of Descriptive Terms; etc. All callers that call the Advanced Program should be thoroughly familiar with the Preface and should be able to explain how these rules are used at the Advanced Program to their dancers.

PRESERVATION OF CIRCLE TO A LINE
Submitted by Grant Logan, Willowdale Ontario

Recognizing that the activity was losing one of our traditional calls, Circle To A Line, because the dancers were substituting Slide To A Line in its place, Frank Pearson originated this contra to preserve the traditional way of dancing Circle To A Line. To preserve the timing of this contra, insist that your dancers execute the call as it was written.

Author: Frank Pearson, Willowdale, Ontario
Music: Summertime Dream – Chapparal 403 or Put Another Log on the Fire – Thunderbird 132.
Formation: Alternate Duple, Form Lines with men on Caller’s Right, Partners across from them; Have 1st, 3rd, etc. cross over (exchange places with partners); All face corners, Actives are facing away from caller (or head of set).

Intro   With Corners Slide Thru

1 – 8    then Partners Star Thru, Circle to a Line of Four (Active man break to a line facing down the set)

REFERENCE SOURCES

The best and most frequently referenced source of authoritative information was the Sets In Order American Square Dance Society (SIOASDS) Caller Text published in 1985. This manual is a compendium of articles written by some of our outstanding leaders over a 15 year period. It is available from your local suppliers or directly from the publisher. It should be in every caller's library and certainly available for perusal at every callers' school. With the publication of the CALLERLAB Curriculum Guidelines for Caller Training and the Training Supplement, we now have a new standard of authoritative reference material available through the CALLERLAB Office. Here then, are the most commonly quoted reference materials available.

As a minimum, any caller who is interested in training others should have detailed knowledge about The CALLERLAB Curriculum Guidelines for Caller Training and The Technical Supplement to that book. Several other publications are extremely valuable and should be available for student callers to look at and decide whether to obtain them. This list is periodically reviewed and updated. If you have suggestions for inclusions, please write to the Chairman of the Caller Training Committee, in care of the CALLERLAB Office.
