Congratulations to the 2006 Milestone Award Recipients

Calvin Campbell and Betsy Gotta both received the prestigious CALLERLAB Milestone Award during the Charlotte Convention in North Carolina. Both have been long-time active members of the predecessor committees that have recently become the Committee for Community and Traditional Dance.

Calvin has long been the editor of this Journal and just recently handed it on to new editorship. We were pleased to see his long devotion to the promotion of Square Dance Parties and Community Dancing officially recognized. We thank Calvin and Judy for their outstanding fifty-year commitment to this very basic and important ingredient in the square dance world.

Betsy has been involved in nearly all facets of CALLERLAB during her long calling career. She has shared her extensive knowledge during several BDPLS presentations on calling for youth, calling for seniors and prompting contras. We thank Betsy and Roy for their outstanding contributions towards the betterment of our activity.

Chassé and Sashay – An Interesting Pair

After a little research, we have found the following definitions from Classical Ballet, Round Dancing, Webster’s, and Square Dancing, respectively.

Chassé [sha-SAY]: (from the French for “to chase”) A dance step in which one foot literally chases the other foot out of its position; done in a series.

Chassé: A step used in Fox Trot, Jive, Two-Step and Waltz with slight variations for each rhythm. It always includes at least two quick steps “Side, Close” and a third gliding step either forward or to the side.

Sashay: [verb, colloquial, altered from chassé] to glide, move around, or go.

Half Sashay: From a couple (2 adjacent dancers facing the same way), the dancer on the right sidesteps to the left in front of the dancer on the left who sidesteps to the right in back. They exchange places and end standing as a couple. Full Sashay is two Half Sashays in succession to end in the starting position.

Obviously these two calls have very similar names and a linguistic connection. When used colloquially to describe a quick gliding step, they may be used interchangeably. In technical applications they have different meanings. Chassé is usually a straight line movement which might include body rotation. Half Sashay is a sideways sliding exchange of position without changing the facing direction.

In this issue we explore a few dances that use these two calls. To provide a gentle start, the first dance introduces the “Side, Close” action in slow motion. Then we Sashay down the center, play with the modern Half Sashay, and recall two historical dances in which couples in lines of 4 exchange places.
Proper Contra

Barley and Oats
Ken Kernen

Usage: This is a nice alternative to the Virginia No-Reel.

Vocabulary Comment: What should we call the move down the center? The term “Sashay” is usually used as the colloquial alteration of Chassé.

Formation: Contra Lines of 4 or 5 couples with all the gents in the line on the prompter’s right and all the ladies in the line on the prompter’s left. For other partner pairings designate them as “Barley and Oats” or whatever is appropriate. This may be danced with more couples if an extra set of 8 beats is used each time to allow completion of the Promenade and Arch section. (Six energetic couples might just finish in 64 beats.)

Music: “14 Karot” on Ute UR9, or “Paddlin’ Madelin Home” on Blue Star 2455

Intro - - - -, Everybody Forward & Back

1-8 - - Gents Arch, Ladies Duck Thru & all U-Turn Back
9-16 - - - -, Everybody Forward & Back
17-24 - - - -, Ladies Arch, Gents Duck Thru & all U-Turn Back
25-32 - - - -, Top Couple Sashay to the foot
33-40 - - - -, Sashay back to the head of the set
41-48 - - - -, Promenade Single File to the foot
49-56 - - - -, Actives Arch and others Duck Thru
57-64 - - - -, Everybody Forward & Back

Description:

1-8 Long lines join hands, all forward 3 and touch, back 3 and touch.

9-16 The men maintain their handholds along the line & raise their arms to make arches. All walk forward 6 steps as the ladies duck thru the arches passing right sides with their partner. (The lady at the foot should imagine an extra man to make her arch.) Everyone U-Turn Back in 2 beats to end standing where their partner began.

17-24 (Repeat 1-8)

25-32 The ladies maintain their handholds along the line & raise their arms to make arches. All walk forward 6 steps as the men duck thru the arches passing right sides with their partner. (The man at the foot should imagine an extra lady to make his arch.) Everyone U-Turn Back in 2 steps to end standing in their home line.

33-40 The top couple step to the center, join both hands and Sashay to the foot of the set in 8 beats – 3 quick “Side, Closes” & 1 “Side, Touch”. (Alternatively, for those less agile, strut down the center.)

41-48 The same couple Sashay back to the head of the set. (Using the alternative version, dancers U Turn Back alone and strut back.)

49-56 The top couple Separate and lead their individual lines in a Single File Promenade down the outside of the set to the foot and then face and join both hands to make an arch. Dancers must move out quickly in order to complete this and the next action in 16 beats.

57-64 All the other dancers Duck Thru the arch in pairs and then follow the original 2nd couple up the set. The 2nd couple becomes the new top couple, the others move up, and the 1st stays at the foot.

Hernando’s Hideaway

Tango

Usage: This simple mixer is similar to several others, but the tango music and “Ole!” add a special flair.

Formation: Circle of Couples facing counterclockwise. Normally the lady is on the gent’s right side. Begin in semi-closed ballroom position. Opposite footwork throughout.

Prompts:

- Intro - - - -, - - Walk 2
  - 1-8 - - Run 4, - - Side, Draw
  - 9-16 - - Side, Draw, - - Back Away 4
- 17-24 - - - -, - - Forward to Left
- 25-32 - - - -, - “Ole” then Walk 2

Description:

1-8 Moving forward and beginning with man’s left & lady’s right, Walk 2 steps, then Run 4 steps turning to face and ending in Butterfly position (partners facing, hands up and touching palm-to-palm)

9-16 Step sideways towards line of dance (man left, lady right) then draw the other foot along the floor to end beside first and change weight. Do this twice using 2 beats per step.

17-24 Starting on man’s left & lady’s right, back away from partner in 4 slow steps. (Men back into the center.)

25-32 Walk diagonally to the left to meet a new partner in 4 slow, dramatic steps (2 beats per step). On beat 8 shout “Ole!” and throw both hands into the air with abandon.
Square Gimmick

Playing with Half Sashay

The call Half Sashay directs the 2 dancers in a couple to exchange places with each other without changing facing directions. In 4 beats they each sidestep to the other’s position with the dancer on the right moving in front of the dancer on the left.

An interesting extension to this concept is a Reverse Half Sashay in which the dancer on the left moves in front of the dancer on the right. The combination of these two actions makes a smooth move called “Linear Weave”. This can be used instead of the 5 pair Sashays above.

Mescolanza

Dumbarton Drums
Dorothy Shaw

Formation: Lines of 4 facing lines of 4, in columns. The lines nearest the prompter have their backs to the prompter. There may be an extra line at the bottom facing up. Male and female partners would normally dance with the lady on the gent’s right.

Music: “Dumbarton Drums” on Lloyd Shaw 172 or try “Macho Man” on Lou Mac 212

Prompts:

Intro - - - -, With the music Forward & Back
1-8 - - - -, Right Couple in front Sashay & Stamp
9-16 - - - -, With the music Forward & Back
17-24 - - - -, New Right Couple in front Sashay back & Stamp
25-32 - - - -, Each 4 Right-Hand Star
33-40 - - - -, Same 4 Left-Hand Star
41-48 - - - -, Lines go Forward & Back
49-56 - - - -, Arch to the Head, Dive to the foot
57-64 - - - -, With the music Forward & Back

Description:

1-8 The 4 in line join hands and all take 3 short steps forward, bow to the one they face on the 4th count and take 4 steps back to place.

9-16 Each half of the line will exchange places with the other half in six beats (3 sets of “Side, Close”), then quickly stamp lightly in place 3 times during beats 7 & 8. The exchange is always done with the right-hand pair sliding in front of the left-hand pair.

17-24 (Same as 1-8 above.)
25-32 (Same as 9-16 above with the new right-hand pair in front.)
33-40 Each half of the line makes a 4-hand Right-Hand Star with their facing pair and turns it once around.

41-48 The same 4 dancers reverse to make a Left-Hand Star and turn it once around to end with each pair back in their original line.

49-56 (Same as 1-8 above.)
57-64 Partner pairs maintain their handhold while releasing the center handhold in each line. Those pairs facing the prompter raise their joined hands to make an arch. Both lines move forward as those pairs with their backs to the prompter, dive under the arches to meet a new line of four. When a line reaches the head or foot of the hall, the dancers face back the other way and wait for the next Dive. If the couples are a male and female pair they may do a California Twirl (Arch joined arms, lady turn to her left under their arched arms, man turn to his right around lady, pass right shoulders with each other and face back the other way as a normal couple).

Optional variation: If all columns have an even number of lines, you may wish to “Dip and Dive” passing 2 lines so that all dance every time. For the second Dive Thru exchange roles, so those facing the foot make the Arch while those facing the prompter Dive Thru.
Historical Quadrille

George Washington's Favorite Cotillion

Source: Researched by Yona Chock for the 2006 National Dance Association meeting and also presented at the 2006 BDPLS in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Usage: This dance is tricky because of the quickly changing focus between lines and boxes of 4. Also, the couples have the lady on the gent’s left instead of in the usual position on the gent’s right.

Vocabulary Comment: Here is where the two calls Sashay and Chassé truly overlap. In the 1700’s when this dance was written, perhaps by a French dancing master, the original Chassé call was used.

Formation: 4-couple Square

Music: “Flowers of Edinburgh” (see below) (Lloyd Shaw 308, “Ocean View Reel”, is a medley including “Flowers of Edinburgh”). (Suggest 110 beats/minute.)

Prompts:
Intro - - - -, - - Heads Face
1-8 - - - Chassé, - - - Balance
9-16 - Right Star half, - - - Balance
17-24 - - Chassé, - - - Balance
25-32 - Circle Left half, Heads home Sides face
33-40 - - - Chassé, - - - Balance
41-48 - - Left Star half, - - - Balance
49-56 - - Chassé, - - - Balance
57-64 - Circle Right half, Sides home Heads face

Repeat all of the above. For experts it can be varied by having the Stars and Circles done in opposite directions or by having the left-end couples Chassé in front.
