DVD - A visit with the LEGENDS.....(Special sale price).$10.00
This DVD is a delightful look at the history of square dance calling. This visit with the very legends that made history happen will both enlighten and entertain. Listen to panelists Cal Golden, Marshall Flippo, Jim Mayo and Wade Driver with Johnny Wedge as moderator 2009.

DVD - * BDPLS - Before The Dance (2004)$10.00
Presenter Bob Riggs - This DVD covers the many Abehind the scenes@ activities and plans required before we actually call a Beginner Dance Party. This DVD illustrates how to prepare for the dance

DVD - * BDPLS - Dancing Outside the Box (2004) $10.00
Presenter Calvin Campbell - There are many different types of dances which can add to the variety of the dance, entertainment, and fun of a Beginner Dance Party. Dancing Outside the Box includes introduction to Contras, the Sicilian Circle and Mixers.

DVD - * BDPLS - Father/Daughter Dance (2004)..... $10.00
Presenter Gerry Hardy - A Father/Daughter Dance is a common type of Beginner Dance Party. Most active callers posses the basic skills needed for this type dance. This session shows how those skills can be used to teach various dance formations and dances.

DVD - * BDPLS - Handicapable Dancing (2004)..... $10.00
Presenter Michelle McCarty - Calling for Handicapable Dancers requires certain skills and perceptions which can be studied and learned. This session covers those skills.

DVD - * BDPLS - Elementary School Dances (2007)..... $10.00
Presenters Chuck and Becky Jaworski - Besides the usual dances, such as the Hokey Pokey, Chicken Dance, and Ding Dong Dandy (Hand Jive), Chuck and Becky present dances on this DVD that have proven to be winners with Primary/Elementary school children.

DVD - * BDPLS - Grand March Variations (2007) $10.00
Presenter Gregg Anderson - This session of AVariations on the Grand March@ describes many ways to use this geometric delight at party dances. See how the concepts that have been used for couples in a circle also may be applied to trio lines. Also, a grand march that ends with the dancers in parallel lines facing the front is only part of the story. Possible add-on variations launched from this interim formation are explored. And once the add-ons are understood see how these elements can be put together in differing order depending on your needs as relates to the size of the group, configuration of the dance hall, etc. This video even shows one of the routines included in ALloyd Shaw==s Cowboy Dances called AThe Arbor@.

DVD - * BDPLS - Play Parties & Easy Folk Dances (2007) $10.00
Presenter Stew Shacklette - Play-Party games deserve a place in the social programs of young people. As mixers they are unequaled. Many serve equally well for family groups of children, young people and adults. The fun element makes them popular and rhythm is a unifying force. New games are being found in out of the way places and it is hoped that many more will be transcribed before they are lost from memory.

DVD - *BDPLS - Dancing Outside The Box (2007)..... $10.00
Presenter Cal Campbell - Cal picks up where he left off at the 2004 CALLERLAB Convention. This DVD includes an introduction to the following dances: Cat=s Meow, Ten Pretty Girls, Traffic Jam 1, Traffic Jam 2, Traffic Jam 3, Texas Shootout, Rebecca=s Roundabout, Kingston Flyer, Clopton Bridge, OXO Contra, and NDA Contra.

DVD - CALLERLAB Foundation Focus Group..... $10.00

This DVD presentation reports on focus group research which was commissioned by the CALLERLAB Foundation. Star Works, a market research company, was contracted to conduct the research for the Foundation. The research was a first step in a marketing program to promote square dancing and increase participation in the activity. The research had two goals:

1. Learn whether new dancers might be attracted to square dancing, what would attract them and what obstacles there might be to getting them involved: and
2. Understand why people who used to dance or who attended classes and dropped out, and what might draw them back into square dancing.
